

Poly Auction Hong Kong Announces Spring Auctions Updates

In light of the global impact of the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, Poly Auction Hong Kong has decided to postpone our spring auctions to the week of July 5th in Poly Gallery Hong Kong. Details of the auctions schedule will be announced in due course.

This was a difficult decision based on our closely monitoring on the coronavirus situation, the advice from health authorities, and hardships our clients may have faced in the past few months. We would like you to know that the health and well-being of our clients, employees and community remains our top priority.

Alex Chang, Managing Director of Poly Auction Hong Kong, said, “In the face of the coronavirus, the world is undergoing unprecedented challenges. No matter where you are, we sincerely hope that you and your loved ones are healthy and safe. Our specialist team will provide counselling and valuation services for our clients just as before. We thank you for your continued patience and support and look forward to seeing you again in July.”

Meanwhile, our private sale service provides bespoke advice on your private collection. You are also welcomed to consult with our financial consultants for art-financing solutions. Fusing our art expertise with flexible financial support, we strive to meet every customized need of you by providing the most professional and convenient services.
