- The Magnificent Jewels and Prestige Watches Department reached a total of HK$ 146 million. A Magnificent Jadeite Bangle was sold for HKD36 million, which is the second highest price for a Jadeite bangle lot ever sold by Poly Auction Hong Kong; “The King of Watches” - Patek Philippe Ref. 6002G was sold for HK$ 31.8 million, the highest price ever for a watch lot sold by Poly Auction Hong Kong.

- The Noble Handbags and Hype Collectibles Department reached a total of HK$ 16.59 million. The leading lots, namely, “The Kings of Handbags”, a Himalaya Niloticus Crocodile Birkin 25 and a Himalaya Niloticus Crocodile Kelly 28, were respectively sold at the high prices of HK$ 1.8 million and HK$ 1.92 million.

- The Rare Wine, Whisky and Chinese Tea Department reached a total of HK$ 31.95 million. The Seven Pieces of Antique Pu’er Tea Cakes, “Shuangshi Tongqing Hao”, 1920s, with clear provenance and exquisite appearance, was sold at a final high price of HKD9.48 million; a 26-bottle set of Karuizawa Noh series whiskies, considered a rare collection-grade lot on the market, fetched a high price of HK$ 2.16 million.

The 2021 Spring Auctions of Poly Auction drew to a successful close, having achieved over HK$ 700 million in total sales. With 1 lot sold for over HKD100 million and 7 lots sold at over HKD10 million, the performance was strong. Over-the-phone bidding recorded a sizeable growth of 318% and online bidding increased by 52%. Online viewership exceeded 120,000, setting a new high.
Mr Alex Chang, Managing Director of Poly Auction (Hong Kong) Limited, commented, “In this year’s Spring Auction, we offered a variety of appealing themes and achieved exciting results. Several departments recorded new highs in their total sales. Before the auctions took place, we launched more live tours of previews by our specialists and live streaming on different online platforms, resulting in more interaction between us and our clients. During the auctions, we provided global real-time broadcast simulcast across Hong Kong, Beijing and Taipei by setting multiple cameras at different angles. Clients from multiple countries and territories engaged in competitive bidding in the auction room, over the phone and on online platforms, such as, the Poly Auction App and the WeChat Mini Program. Over-the-phone bidding and online bidding saw major increases of 318% and 52% respectively, demonstrating collectors’ strong confidence in and support for our specialist teams in lot selection.”

Highlighted Sold Lots

Modern and Contemporary Art
Total sale: HK$ 267 million

A total of 96 exquisite lots were offered in the Modern and Contemporary Art sale. A total of HKD 267 million in sales was realised, with over 90% of the lots sold.

In the 2019 Autumn Auctions, Poly Auction Hong Kong sold Yoshitomo Nara’s Not Everything but / Green House for HKD 40.12 million, breaking the world record by the artist. Nara’s museum-grade large-scale house installation titled Berlin Barack, Room 1 was the highlight of the Spring Auctions, the work that was featured on the sales catalogue started bidding at HKD 38 million. After intense rounds of bidding, it was finally sold for HKD 120 million, setting a new world record for the artist’s three-dimensional work and also marks the second-highest auction price by Yoshitomo Nara. Another the highlight of the sale 12.04.60 by Zao Wou-Ki, also achieved a brilliant result, with a final selling price of HKD 60 million.

Ms Jamie Yu, head of the Modern and Contemporary Art Department, said, “Adjustments have been made to the auction strategy this time. No more than 100 exquisite items were offered for the entire sale. This was done so that collectors could focus more on the representative artworks of different styles and periods. Presenting a variety of themes has resulted in enthusiastic feedback from domestic and overseas collectors alike. The two important museum-grade works offered in this sale, namely Berlin Barack, Room 1 by Yoshitomo Nara and 12.04.60 by Zao Wou-Ki, both achieved brilliant exciting outcomes, much to everyone’s encouragement. This reflects that collectors have a great demand for and strong confidence in artworks of different types while also fully demonstrating the high degree of trust that domestic and overseas collectors place in Poly Auction Hong Kong, as well as the strength and tenacity of the Asian art market in the face of challenges.”

Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art
Total sale: HK$ 201 million

For this year’s Spring Auctions, the four special sessions proudly presented by the Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art Department totalled HKD 201 million, with 3 lots sold for over HKD 10 million. The Duchange Family Collection of Important Chinese Art I sale achieved a high sell-through rate of 82.6%.

Mr. Du Jibo, Senior Specialist of The Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art Department, commented, “Building on the commendable results from years past, the four sessions by the Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art Department of once again concluded with remarkable success. What makes this year’s Spring Auctions exceptional is the fact that we were able to source a batch of collections from a single collector from Paris, France, which enabled us to launch the Duchange Family Collection of Important Chinese Art session. The lots for this session, all exquisite items that are rare on the market, have been in the possession of the collector for more than forty years. The Fine and Extremely Rare Imperial Doucai and Famille-Rose ‘Anbaxian’ Octagonal Vase, Mark and Period of Qianlong was sold at the high price of HKD 55.2 million, which was the second highest price ever for a ceramic sold by Poly Auction Hong Kong. Such an outstanding performance reflects that there is a demand for premium lots on the market, and demonstrates the meticulousness and acute judgement of the professional specialists at Poly Auction Hong Kong. In the future, we will continue to strive for presenting even more extraordinary lots to help collectors build their own comprehensive and thorough collections.”

Magnificent Jewels and Prestige Watches
Total sale: HK$ 146 million

Poly Auction Hong Kong and Poly Auction Beijing collaborated for the 2021 Spring Auctions. Two auctions, namely “Magnificent Jewels” and “Prestige Watches” realised HK$ 146 million in total sales. A total of 3 lots were sold for over HKD10 million. The headline lot of the “Magnificent Jewels” sale was sold at HK$ 36 million, which is the second highest price ever for a jadeite bangle sold by Poly Auction Hong Kong.
Ms Sze Sze, Head of the Magnificent Jewels and Prestige Watches Department, commented, “The performance of this season’s auctions still exceeds expectation despite the pandemic and border lockdown. The result for exquisite items and collection-grade jewels just far exceeded expectations. This applies to the Magnificent Jadeite Bangle, which was featured on the catalogue cover, and the Exceptional 8.07 Carat Burmese ‘Pigeon’s Blood’ Ruby and Diamond Ring. They were sold at 36 million and 31.2 million respectively. This reveals the immense confidence that collectors have collection-grade jewels. With natural resources becoming scarce, the production of exquisite items is not a guaranteed certainty. The buyers in this auction had a powerful foresight. We are still also very confident about the prospects of the premium jewellery market. We believe that even better auction records can be set once the pandemic has stabilised.”

The Prestige Watches sale presented a series of rare and magnificent premium timepieces, as usual. The timepiece that attracted the most attention is “The King of Watches”, a Patek Philippe 6002G, which is currently one of the extremely complex wristwatches in the world. With HK$ 24 million as the starting bid, the timepiece was very much sought after. It was finally sold for HK$ 31.8 million, the top price for the whole auction and the highest price ever fetched by a timepiece lot sold by Poly Auction Hong Kong.

Watches Specialist Karen Ng said, “We are honoured to have the support of collectors, which made it possible for this Prestige Watches sale to outperform expectations amidst multiple uncertainties. The Patek Phillipe timepiece, featured on the front cover of the auction catalogue, was sold for HK$ 31.8 million whereas the Richard Mille RM11-03, featured on the back cover, was sold for HK$ 4.2 million. The outcome is encouraging. Apart from these, some of the unique collectible timepieces and Rolex wristwatches were similarly highly popular among collectors. This shows that collectors are in passionate pursuit of watches of rare provenance, and that the market is confident about the prospects. Poly Auction Hong Kong hopes to continue serving collectors in the future by acquiring more premium watches, and to strive for outstanding achievements together again.”

Rare Wine, Whisky and Chinese Tea
Total sale: HK$ 31.95 million

The Rare Wine, Whisky and Chinese Tea Department presented a carefully curated range of premium lots, from rare vintage Pu’er tea to new tea from the 2000s. Among the lots on offer was the Seven Pieces of Antique Pu’er Tea Cakes, “Shuangshi Tongqing Hao”, 1920s, which have been carefully stored for 100 years in a dry storage. The source of this lot has clear provenance and an exceptionally good appearance. The lot was ultimately sold at a high price of HK$9.48 million, the top price of this auction. The 26-bottle set of Karuizawa Noh series whiskies in the Chinese Spirit and Whisky Auction is a collection-grade lot rarely seen on the market. Its high selling price of HK$2.16 million clinches the top prices of the auction.

Mr Liam Gui, Head of the Rare Wine, Whisky and Chinese Tea Department, said, “With borders locked down due to the pandemic, the performance of this auction met expectations. In terms of tea leaves, the Seven Pieces of vintage Pu’er Tea Cakes, “Shuangshi Tongqing Hao”, 1920s, featured on the cover of the auction catalogue, changed hands for the high consideration of HK$9.48 million. We are delighted to have found a new owner for this rare, premium lot, and we would like to congratulate the lucky buyer on winning the bid, which allowed the preservation of the legend of “Shuangshi Tongqing”. The Important Hong Kong Private Collection: Vintage White Tea and Dried Tangerine Peel sale has continued the streak of remarkable performance in past seasons. The thematic sale of tea leaves from Wang De Chuan Tea Company, a Taiwanese tea company, debuted in this auction and also performed well. The lot entitled “A Decade Collection of Pu’er Tea, Wang Dechuan, 2006-2015” was sold at HK$540,000, which is 3 times the pre-auction low estimate. I would like to express my gratitude towards collectors for their support for Poly Auction Hong Kong. The Rare Wine, Whisky and Chinese Tea Department will continue acquiring time-honoured tea leaves, dried tangerine peels and sino-western rare wines and whiskies with investment value.”
