Poly Auction Hong Kong's First-Ever Auction In Partnership With Artsy Will Feature Important Artworks By Blue-Chip Artists Including Andy Warhol, Robert Rauschenberg, Victor Vasarely, and Frank Stella

Bidding starts: From today - 16 September (Thursday) 10:00 pm (Hong Kong Time)

Poly Auction Hong Kong is delighted to present Poly × Artsy: Post-War & Contemporary Masters, a curated online auction that brings together a range of important Post-War and Contemporary artists, inaugurating our partnership with Artsy, the largest online marketplace for buying and selling fine art by leading artists.

Highlights of this online sale consist of a selection of exceptional works by blue-chip Post-War and Contemporary masters, including an original work by Robert Rauschenberg's Untitled, Andy Warhol's $, Frank Stella's The Candles and Victor Vasarely's Bivonn-2; as well as featuring critically acclaimed international artists from the Middle East and Africa. The works on offer represent a breadth of styles and price ranges, making the sale enticing for connoisseurs and first-time buyers alike.

Discussing the partnership and sale with Artsy, Alex Chang, Chief Executive Officer of Poly Auction Hong Kong Limited remarked, "Poly Auction Hong Kong has all along been making innovative changes and exploring more possibilities through diverse modes of cooperation. By harnessing its competitive edge in the Greater China regions, Poly Auction has remained at the top position worldwide in terms of total sales volume achieved in the auctioning of Chinese Art every year since 2010. In the meantime, we have always been seeking to expand into the international markets and have been active in this endeavour. Through this online auction jointly launched with Artsy, a series of important post-war works and works created by the masters of contemporary art will be presented to collectors, bringing them an even richer experience in art collection."

Commenting on the auction and partnership with Poly Auction, Dustyn Kim, Artsy's Chief Revenue Officer, said: "Artsy's upcoming inaugural auction in partnership with leading Asian auction house Poly Auction is testament to Artsy's investment in Asia. We're delighted to have launched this partnership with such a strong offering of post-war and contemporary artworks by blue-chip artists, which will appeal to both established collectors and first-time buyers not just based in Asia but across the globe."
